Country Music Recording Artist

Meet Steve

Living most of his life in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, loving all things country, the Sarnia born Singer/Songwriter has utilized music as his anchor to weather the many storms of life. Since he got his first Kenny Rogers LP when he was 7.

He's been hooked on Country Music. You'll hear it when he sings and you'll see it in his eyes when you look and see a man who no longer takes life for granted. Steven sings with a depth and conviction coming, with taking the road less travelled. His passion for music has always been his compass for living. Since picking up the Guitar at 25 years old, Steve's retro cool urban cowboy vibe is a true gem in today's ever-changing world. As a modern day troubadour, Steve has perfected an authentic country sound that draws you in and connects to his music in an unforgettable, raw, pure country way! It's said that real talent is a calling not a choice; Steven Pointmeier is the real deal when it comes to male country vocalists.

In 2022 Steve Pointmier won the YYC Song of the year for his 2021 release "Sway". A particularly special win for Steve as Calgary (yyc) has been home to Steve for the majority of his adult life.

Love Don't Let Me Down

Taking a different twist for his latest release for "Love Don't Let Me Down" see's Steve Pointmeier singing about the most popular subject of LOVE. From the point of view of someone who has recently found LOVE himself. Steve's newest release is another Bart McKay produced hit aimed straight for Country Radio. With session musicians like Chad Melchert (Drums) Murray Pulver (Lead Guitar) and returning on this track is Travis Switzer (Bass), you'll hear a combination of sound that has worked for Steve thus far, and he see's no reason to change given the powerfully strong Verses that lead you into Earworm hooks of Choruses that'll leave you wanting to hear it again and again. From the distinct Country Banjo to the rich harmonies that compliment Steve's own pure country vocal's this song is fire and sure to garner lots of radio pickups starting Steve's 2nd of 4 new releases coming in 2023!

With Steve's own wedding taking centre stage for the music video this summer, I'm sure you'll enjoy the tapestry of music as well as visual delights.
